GREAT ITALIAN DRIVE APPARENTLY IS GETTING UNDER WAY AGAINST GREECE

HIGH COMMAND OF ITALIAN INVADERS CLAIMING ADVANCE

FASCIST DIVISIONS REPORTED TO HAVE ADVANCED BEYOND KALAMAS RIVER

(By The Associated Press.)

Italy's long-expected "big push" in the 11-day-old war with Greece was reported under way today as the Italian high command said fascist divisions had advanced beyond the Kalamas river on the northwest battlefront.

The Italian invaders had reached the river eight days ago in their thrusut from Albania.

Dispatches from the northeast front said the siege of Koritza, key Italian supply base 10 miles inside Albania, where 80,000 fascist troops have been reported "trapped," appeared to be reaching a critical phase.

(Unconfirmed frontier advices reaching Salonika yesterday said Greek mountain fighters, swarming down from heights around the city, had entered Koritza and captured thousands of Italian prisoners.

(Military experts discounted the reports, however, pointing out that the Greeks would be in a more favorable position by clinging to the mountains — beyond reach of Italian mechanized forces.)

Both sides were reported rushing reinforcements to the Koritza sector, with the Greeks holding the heights above the Albanian town of Bigliste, east of Koritza, despite strong Italian counterattacks.

A decisive battle, it was said, appeared imminent.

Air Activity.

Greek and British warplanes bombed Koritza and Argirocastro, another Albanian town, while Italian bombers smashed at the Greek town of Phlorina with reported heavy casualties ensuing.

A Laconic communique by Premier Mussolini's high command disclosed the start of the "big push."

"The Kalamas river has been left behind by our divisions. Our air force has aided land operations with machine-gunning operations, hitting enemy works along the Ioannina-Kalibaki highway, in the Phlorina zone and near Lake Presba."

The Kalamas river roughly parallels the Albanian border from five to 15 miles inside Greece, in the northwest.

Belgrade dispatches said that

Michigan Makes Switch to Willkie In Final Count

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Revised unofficial presidential vote totals, now virtually complete, tipped Michigan back into the republican column this afternoon. With three of the state's 3632 precincts missing, the vote was: Willkie 1,028,087; Roosevelt 1,025,774.

Belated returns from straggling precincts in out-state districts where the republican nominee showed his greatest early strength upset the advantage, never too substantial, that predominantly democratic Wayne county (Detroit) gave the President midway of the count.

One state contest, for attorney general, was so close it appeared the outcome could be considered certain only after the official canvass.

REPUBLICANS GAIN FOUR ADDITIONAL SEATS IN SENATE

MIDWESTERN VOTERS RUNNING COUNTER TO DEMOCRATIC TREND WAS CAUSE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7—(AP)—A resurgent tide of middlewestern votes which ran counter to the National Democratic trend carried Republicans today toward a six-year high point in the new senate.

That meant four more places than they now hold, but was far below the Democratic total of sixty-six.

Party voting which cut through the Roosevelt majorities in Ohio, Illinois and Minnesota and paced the Willkie strength in Nebraska and Indiana, gave the Republicans five seats previously held by Democrats. The only offset to this was the Republicans' loss of a seat in Delaware.

The last race to be decided was in North Dakota, where former Governor William Langler won the senate seat formerly held by Lynn Frazier, defeated by Langler in the republican primary. William Lemke, independent, finished second in the contest.

When Vice President Garner—or a substitute—pounds the gavel at the first meeting of the Seventy-seventh Congress Jan. 3, there will be more members of the Republican side of the aisle than at any time since the Seventy-third Congress, in which thirty-six served, quit on June 18, 1934.

Wallace New Presiding Officer.

Henry Agard Wallace, 52-year-old former Secretary of Agriculture, will as the new vice president become presiding officer Jan. 20 of a Senate which will be composed of sixty-six Democrats, twenty-eight Republicans, one Progressive and One Independent. ## DERRICK DEDICATION TRIBUTE PIONEERS OF TEXAS OIL INDUSTRY

FIRST COMMERCIAL PRODUCTION IN MID-CONTINENT FOUND THIS CITY

Numerous leaders in the oil fraternity in Texas and the southwest were in Corsicana Thursday afternoon for the formal presentation and dedication of a memorial plaque and miniature derrick commemorating the discovery of oil in Corsicana and the birth of the oil industry in this city forty-five years ago.

Formal ceremonies were held at the site of the memorial at the intersection of Highways, 75 and 287 before a large audience. At noon visiting officials were entertained at the Navarro Hotel by Corsicana oil operators.

Mayor John C. Calhoun of Corsicana was master of ceremonies for the occasion, and the Corsicana High School band preceded the ceremonies with a concert under the direction of Herbert Lewis Hill. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. C. R. Haden, Jr., rector of the St. John's Episcopal church.

Congressman Luther A. Johnson of the Sixth District of Texas of Corsicana delivered the welcoming address. The formal presentation of the plaque was made by George Gibbons, executive secretary of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association. Judge J. C. Hunter of Abilene, Texas representative on the Interstate Oil Compact Commission was the dedicatory speaker and State Highway Commissioner Harry Hines addressed the audience on the Highway department's interest in highway beautification. Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the Bureau of business Research of the University of Texas, concluded the program with an address on "What Oil Means to Texas."

Among those attending the luncheon at the Navarro Hotel at noon were E. L. Smith of Dallas, and Mexia, president of the Texas

LATEST RETURNS UNFAVORABLE FOR RED RIVER COUNTY

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Late returns to the Texas Election Bureau today brought a vote of 137,321 against the proposed Red River county tax amendment to 136,909 for it.

The bureau's 1:30 p. m. tabulation reflected the first unfavorable vote to the constitutional amendment which would authorize Red River county, after an election, to levy an ad valorem tax of no more than 25 cents on the $100 valuation to refund outstanding county warrants.

Three other proposed constitutional amendments were apparently approved and the election bureau did not continue tabulation of votes on them. The bureau continued tabulating returns on the doubtful amendment when the ratio of the adverse vote showed a steady gain.

The amendment would affect Red River county only.

Meanwhile, the total vote crawled toward the million total expected by the bureau, with 936,627 counted. Of these, Roosevelt had 757,323 and Willkie 178,982.

ROOSEVELT, FIRST THIRD TERM LEADER, RETURNS CAPITAL

PRESIDENT CONTINUES TO ROLL UP POPULAR VOTE, 449 ELECTORAL VOTES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt returned to a tumultuous reception in Washington today, secure in a third term despite belated election results which edged Michigan's 19 electoral votes into the Republican column.

Michigan's change, with the count still incomplete, made the electoral vote standing 449 for Roosevelt and 82 for Wendell L. Willkie.

Mr. Roosevelt, first man ever to be selected for 12 years in the White House, told a welcoming throng that of all the cities in the country, he and Mrs. Roosevelt "would rather live in Washington, D. C., than any place else."

He made the statement with a laugh in a talk to a crowd which thronged the plaza outside union station upon his arrival from Hyde Park, N. Y.

The chief executive, fresh from his third term election triumph, thanked "my old friends of Washington" for their reception and added: "it isn't as if we (himself and Mrs. Roosevelt) were new people. Your turning out to see

ONE GOVERNORSHIP GAINED INDICATED FOR REPUBLICANS

SHIFT IN PARTY CONTROL OF TEN STATES IN TUESDAY'S GENERAL ELECTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Vote totals pointed today to a possible net republican gain of one governorship as late tabulations of Tuesday's record balloting showed a shift in party control of ten state administrations, with only two of 33 gubernatorial races still in doubt.

Republicans marked up five victories in previous democratic territory—Delaware, Illinois, Missouri, Montana and Nebraska—in electing 14 governors Tuesday. They also won in Maine in September to bring this year's total to 15.

Democrats took four governorships—Connecticut, Idaho, Michigan and Rhode Island—away from the opposing party in electing 17 state executives.

In addition, a democrat William H. Burke appeared to have unseated Gov. Payne H. Rather, Kansas republican, although an official canvass of the vote was needed to determine the winner.

With only one of 2734 state precincts unreported, Burke had

FIRST TEXAS DRAFT CALL ON INDIVIDUAL BOARDS ANNOUNCED

NAVARRO COUNTY CALLED UPON FOR ONLY FIVE MEN IN INITIAL DRAFT

AUSTIN, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The first call on Texas' 351 local draft boards for the actual number of Class 1-A selectees each will be required to furnish to complete the state's quota of 1,573 men during the period Nov. 19 to 26 was issued by the state selective service headquarters today.

General J. Watt Page, state director of selective service, explained that all calls would be made by period and staggered in order that five area induction stations would not receive more than the maximum number of men who would be accommodated conveniently.

Local boards were instructed to post lists of selected men in public places or near offices of the boards and to notify each man called for induction individually.

When a local board has selected registrants to fill its quota call, it will appoint a leader of the group and one or more assistant leaders, chosen on the basis of experience, character and personality, and they will have the authority to deliver the groups to induction stations.

The list of counties, location of boards within the counties the board numbers and the number of men to be furnished by each board in this area follows:

Anderson 8; Ellis, Waxahachie board 5, Ennis board 6; Freestone 3; Hill, Itasca board 3; Kaufman, Terrell board 4, Kaufman board 4; Navarro, Corsicana board No. 3, 5.

MORGENTHAU SAYS MORE TAXES TO BE ASKED FOR DEFENSE

WILL ALSO SEEK INCREASE IN NATIONAL DEBT LIMIT TO 60 OR 65 BILLIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau said today that the treasury would seek further increases in taxes to help meet defense costs while asking a boost of fifteen or twenty billion dollars in the national debt limit to take care of possible deficits up to June 30, 1942.

"We'll need more taxes," Morgenthau told his press conference after explaining that with the present debt limit the treasury found itself "in a rather difficult position."

The limit now is $45,000,000,000 with an additional $4,000,000,000 authorized for national defense spending. The treasury chief said that he might ask congress immediately to remove present restrictions on the defense borrowing authority, and that as soon as possible after the first of the year he would ask for a general increase in the limit.

Explaining that the possible raising of the borrowing authority to $60,000,000,000 or $65,000,000,000 was meant to care for needs only through the 1942 fiscal year, Morgenthau declined to say what debt limit might be needed by the end of the administration's next four year term in January, 1945. Nor did he give further details about plans to raise new taxes.

Asked whether it was conceivable that government expenditures could be put on a "pay as you go" basis shortly, Morgenthau replied "I don't think its possible."

The secretary said that with the old $45,000,000,000 debt limit "practically reached" the treasury found itself "in a rather difficult position."

He added that it would be "very helpful" if congress lifted immediately the restrictions which it put on the $4,000,000,000 additional debt authorization before January 1.

As for general increase in the debt limit, Morgenthau said that he and Daniel W. Bell, treasury undersecretary, would go before congress as soon as possible after the new session begins.

Morgenthau said that the next congress would be asked to make all future issues of state and local securities subject to taxes. He said that in studying the problem he had learned that about $2,000,000,000 of tax-exempt state and local securities would mature next year.

HEAVY BLOWS TO BRITISH MERCHANT MARINE REPORTED

NAZI HIGH COMMAND TELLS WIDE RANGING WARPLANES ATTACKING SHIPPING

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—(AP)—German bombers smashed at four convoys off Britain today, authorized sources said, in continuation of heavy new blows against the British merchant marine.

London was attacked several times, the same scources said, reporting the British lost three planes to one for the Germans.

Results of the attacks no the convoys were listed thus:

Northeast of Norwich: six ships hit, two fired.

Off Harwich: A 5,000-ton ship hit by two bombs.

South of East Bourne: A convoy attacked with results unknown.

Thames Estuary: One British cruiser seriously damaged, a 4,000-ton freighter sunk; a 5,000-ton freighter hit and an armed escort vessel of about 10,000 tons bombed.

The high command chronicled similar blows all around England and well into the Atlantic yesterday.

Its communique told of Nazi warplanes attacking a convoy yesterday some 300 miles west of Ireland and of so severely damaging three freighters of about 6,000 tons each "that their loss must be reckoned with."

South of the Orkney Islands, it

Germany Refuses Safe Conduct For Refugee Steamer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The state department announced today that Germany had refused to give assurance of safe conduct for an American ship to enter an Irish port to bring home American citizens, although Italy had given such an assurance promptly.

Refusing to give such assurances, the German government was said to have declared that the areas around England were "areas of military operations" and that Berlin was "not in a position to furnish any sort of assurance of the nature requested."

The state department said the Italian govenment's prompt and favorable response was furnished to Germany but that despite this the Berlin foreign office declined to act likewise.

The United States had planned to send an American ship, probably the liner Manhattan, to a western Ireland port to bring home about 1,200 American citizens from Great Britain.

In view of the German government's refusal, it was believed the ship would not be sent.

REPUBLICAN TREND OF TWO YEARS AGO SHARPLY REVERSED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Sharply reversing the republican trend two years ago, late returns showed today that the democrats would control the new house with an advantage of about 100 seats over the republicans.

A tabulation of Tuesday's election, which adds two more years to the party's 10 consecutive years of house rule, showed this lineup: 263 democrats, 162 republicans, 3 progressives, 1 independent democrat, 1 American labor, 5 seats in doubt.

The present composition of the house is: 258 democrats, 167 republicans, 2 progressives, 1 farmer-labor, 1 American labor, 6 vacancies. Three of the vacancies formerly were held by democrats and three by republicans.

The republican side was swelled to its present figure by a gain of 81 in 1938, the year which marked a reversal of an earlier new deal trend toward heavier democratic majorities.

Democrats, including Chairman Andrew Jackson May of the military committee, were ahead in four of the districts still in dispute. Richard T. Buckler, the chamber's lone farmer-laborite, was a nose in front of his republican adversary in Minnesota.

It seemed probable, therefore that the democrats would end up with upwards of 100 seats more than the republicans.

Longest Period of Control.

The election assures the democrats of control of the chamber for their longest period since the Civil war—12 years.

Along with victory the democrats brought back to the house 10 party members who were ousted

GREEK DEFENDERS GRUDGINGLY GIVE GROUND SOME POINTS

SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE NEWLY-WON POSITIONS DOMINATING KORITZA

ATHENS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Italy's big push against Greece, supreme test in this little nation's fight for life, apparently has started.

The Greek high command acknowledged that its evzones, or mountain fighters, had been forced into a "slight" retreat along the Ionian Sea, on the Epirus or Kalamas front, in Northwestern Greece.

(After eight days of marking time on the banks of the Kalamas river, constantly harrassed by Greek artillery, planes and roving patrols, the Italian high command reported today that the river had been crossed and left behind.)

Italian forces were reliably reported to have established contact with the main Greek defense lines on the Espirus front. The main body of the Greek army was said to be firmly entrenched in well-fortified positions, however, and neutral military experts said these would be difficult to approach.

Meanwhile it was disclosed that Italy had changed the types of bombing and fighting planes used in the campaign. Fast monoplanes, both for bombing and machine-gun fighting, appeared for the first time yesterday in the place of second-line biplanes first used.

The change was believed by neutral air experts to have been brought about by the heavy losses inflicted on the Fascists by the Greek air force and the increasing air aid supplied by the British.

Heavy artillery and aerial bombardment yesterday preceded the Italian Kalamas thrust.

The Kalamas river, roughly paralleling the border from five to 15 miles inside Greece, is one of the first natural barriers to the Italian Coastal drive from Albania.

Conceivably a successful Italian thrust along the coast, threatening Greek lines of supply deeper inland, might force abandonment of the Greek's own salient now threatening Moritza, Italian invasion base 10 miles inside Albania.

Conversely, capture of Koritza, now dominated by Greek mountain

Ickes Offers To Resign When And If Action Desired

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Secretary Ickes submitted his resignation to President Roosevelt today offering to step out of his interior department post when and if the White House chooses to accept it.

Ickes told his press conference he rejoiced in Mr. Roosevelt's reelection and in offering to resign acted only to give the president a free hand should he desire to make a cabinet change.

Ickes acted similarly after the president's re-election in 1936, as is customary, but not all his colleagues in the Cabinet followed suit.

He said he believed that all presidential appointive officials should do as he had.

"I for one," Ickes said, "believe the president should be left free at the beginning of a new administration to reshuffle, decree or do

TEXAS LAWYERS AND JURISTS PAYING TRIBUTE TO NEW CHIEF JUSTICE TEXAS SUPREME COURT

WACO, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Texas lawyers and judicial leaders today paid tribute to James Patterson Alexander, the new chief justice of the state supreme court in ceremonies at Baylor University.

Justice Alexander's career began in a modest law office at Moody, Tex., in 1908, and he advanced through county, district and appellate judgeships to the highest judicial post at the disposal of the Texas electorate.

The new chief justice was honored in the chapel service of Baylor University, in whose law school he was taught continuously since its establishment in 1920. President Pat M. Neff, former governor, presided.

Justices of the Texas supreme court were on hand to welcome Alexander to their number. They included Chief Justice W. M. Moore, and Associate Justices Richard Critz and John N. Sharp and three from each of the Commissions of Appeals. Members of the Waco Court of Civil Appeals, the district judges residing in Waco and scores of Texas lawyers also were counted.

"It is a tribute to democracy," W. W. Naman, a Waco attorney, said, "for a man to come up from the ranks to the most exalted judicial office in Texas, as Jim Pat Alexander has done. He has achieved through his own efforts and because of his experiences in the classroom and at the bar his sympathies are deep and wide.

"Democracy today faces its greatest difficulties. Its preservation depends largely on our judiciary, and the bar of McLennan county prays that Jim Alexander will be able to meet the challenge."

Dean A. E. Lipscomb of the Baylor law school, a kinsman of an associate justice of the first Texas Supreme Court, found a parallel in "the spirit of King Phillip of Macedonia who thanked the gods for giving him Aristotle, a teacher for his son," and "the spirit of 350 Baylor law graduates who today lift their voices in profound gratitude for their good fortune in having

ELECTION TAKEN ENDORSEMENT U. S. POLICY OF PREPAREDNESS AND UNSTINTED AID FOR BRITAIN

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer.

The world at large appears to be accepting the American election as endorsement of Washington's policy of stone-walling against armed aggression, and of rendering all aid to Britain short of war—an appraisal which in my view is bound to impose a large degree of caution upon both aggressor nations and those which might feel impelled to join them.

If that seems boastful, I would point out that the triple alliance itself—Germany, Italy and Japan—in recent weeks has been displaying deep concern over our continued heavy support of the enemy they are trying to destroy.

The government controlled press of the three musketeers has alternately chattered threats at us like an angry blue-jay, and tried by cajolery and bribes of territory to swing us into line with the totalitarian "new order." Meantime non-belligerent nations like Russia and Turkey have continued their resistance to axis-pressure to join the array against England.

In this connection is a coincidence of great importance that Russia last night right on the heels of our election—announced that the Soviet's policy is one of continued neutrality and armed vigilance.

Now it would be misleading you if I gave the impression that I have any information entitling me to say that the Russan announcement was connected with the American election. I can only express the belief that there was a connection, since Russia has been watching our attitude toward Britain carefully.

The Turks, upon whom Britain must depend so heavily if the axis powers try to force the Dardanelles and break into the near east, showed their pleasure. The Turkish press—and that of the rest of southeastern Europe—figures that the American armament program will be intensified and

WORLD "MISSED THE BUS" AFTER WAR AND ARMISTICE*

Next Stop Will Be at Future Peace Conference —Real Issue to Be Decided Inside the Heads of People—Possible Golden Age of Golden Rule.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

Celebration of Armistice Day seems almost a mockery this year. With the world aflame in a more terrible war than that of twenty-five years ago, we see the futility of the peace that was no peace, but only the beginning of vengeance reprisal and selfish ambitions and indulgence. The "war to end war" has eventuated in a worse war. Today we can only mourn for our dear and honored dead; we cannot exult in the remade order of democracy and liberty for which they died.

November 11, 1918, was one of history's great days of opportunity. All humanity everywhere looked forward to an era of peace and reconstruction. Only those of us who saw them know the unparalleled demonstrations accorded President Wilson by the masses of Europe. Hearts beat high in hope of a better day as the world acclaimed Wilson as its deliverer and leader. Had his Christian purposes been fulfilled there would be no war today.

But the vengeance of Versailles could not be overcome by the Americana idealist. Imperialism and ambition and vindictiveness and greed had their way. Today we see whither that way has led. The soldier's dreams and the world's hopes were betrayed. Christian standards were a major casualty of the war.

The Next Peace Conference.

Some day—God grant that it may be soon—there will be another peace conference. It is not too early to begin to pray and plan that Jesus may have a seat at the counsel table. His teachings should have a prior place on the agenda Only simply must, as a stern matter of self-preservation, rise to the Golden Rule level. We should even now be asking ourselves searchingly, in Mrs. Browning's words, "O heart of mine, art thou great enough for love?"

Thus our present Lesson inexorably carries us into the high, broad realm of public affairs. It is not enough that we practice the Golden Rule in the small amenities of everyday life. This great and solemn law, laid down by the Supreme Teacher, must dominate mannind as a whole. Only as the world ascends to the level of the words of Jesus can it hope to rise above war and fear and greed, and all the manifest forms of selfishness that have heretofore been mankind's master motives. Here is a hard, high truth for a world in the grip of war's passions: We must follow Jesus, or else fall into the pit of civilization's destruction.

The Supreme Challenge.

I have paused in the midst of the writing of this Lesson, to listen to the daily broadcast from London. At this moment, bombs are falling all over the great city that has for centuries been the custodian of so much of our common culture and Christian civilization. Famous historical landmarks have been destroyed. Thousands of persons have been killed and wounded. The horror passes all words. Doubtless the devils in hell are gleefully celebrating this expression of man's worst passions In the midst of a diabolical demonstration, nobody can deal in pious platitudes. Stark reality demands new, clear thinking and speaking and writing.

Today brings a new-old challenge. Before ever we can have a better world, we must have better men and women, and especially better boys and girls. Clearly, our present task is to put up to every individual the inescapable choice between God's way of life and the world's old way. The issue is definitely joined. The final battle will be inside the heads of mankind. Today's choices will determine tomorrow's destiny. Our case is really desperate.

Something Definite to Do.

Most practically, in answer to the natural, "What are we going to do about?" the situation demands that professing Christians, first of all, must get back about their primary obligations. Systematic Bible-study to ascertain the mind of the Master, and systematic private prayer, to establish right relations with God, are the initial obligations. Then the slack in Church attendance must be taken up, and its former sanctity given back to the Lord's Day. There is no doing of Christ's will unless there is a public lining up on His side.

Pivotal also is the matter of religious education of the young. If every Christian were to make it his business to see that at least one boy or girl now outside the Sunday School were brought under the influence of Christian associations, Scripture study and religious music, a greater advance would be immediately accomplished than by a dozen great conferences and discussions.

Here is something to do, something urgent, something near at hand and practical, and possible to even the most commonplace person. And if an adult takes a child to Sunday School, he will naturally go along himself. This is a plain task which may not be evaded by thin excuses concerning defects of the Sunday School or Church. Let us leave that sort of thing to the futile "intellectuals." We want to be "doers of the word."

Golden Age or Golden Rule.

All the world is in a furore over military preparedness. Beneath this excitement there is an undercurrent of concern for the new sort of society that must emerge after the present madness has abated. Talk abounds of new leaders. What we really need is new followers of the one proved Leader who offers principles and a program for the new life, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, whose teachings are set forth in the present Lesson. The New Testament repeatedly calls Him "the Way."

We have tried everything else, and in vain. Imperialism, totalitarianism, communism, aristocracy, paganism, ruthless self-interest—all have been miserable failures. Now in desperation, we must turn again to a way of life that deals primarily with the springs of thought and action. There must be new hearts before there can be new life.

"Only the Golden Rule can bring in the golden age." Transformed men and women, their lives mastered by the Master, alone can transform society. The self-motive. The Kingship of Christ will inaugurate that era of peace, liberty and justice which we know as the Kingdom of Heaven. In a real sense "He is our peace."

MOBILIZATION TO BRING TEMPORARY POSTOFFICE CHANGES

Numerous changes in assignments and personnel are effective and will be effective this month at the local post office incident to the mobilization of the Texas National Guard late this month. This announcement has been made by A. A. Allison, postmaster.

Lieut.-Col. John J. Garner, assistant postmaster for the past several years, is now on vacation. He will be stationed at Brownwood when the National Guard is mobilized. Miss Sadie Hammett, connected with the local post office since May 16, 1912, has been named assistant postmaster for a year, effective, Nov. 1.

J. I. Ellett has been elevated to the money order department, succeeding Miss Hammett. A. M. Hendricks was promoted from the general delivery window to the registration and C. O. D. window, succeeding Ellett

Miss Ethel Fendley has been assigned to general delivery window.

R. E. Pollard, special delivery clerk, and Van Elkins, city carrier, will be given leaves of absence from their duties as they are members of the local National Guard units. Leonard Allmon and Substitutes Bowers and Galloway will take over the duties of Pollard and Elkins.

Blooming Grove 4-H Club Member Is Award Winner

R. D. Garrison of Blooming Grove 4-H Club was the winner of the $5 award offered for the best record book kept by competitors in the baby beef classifications at the recent showing of the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show, according to Ralph Stell, chairman of the committee in charge of the event.

The Blooming Grove youth is 13 years old, and was feeding his first calf, which was purchased in Fort Worth at a cost of $51.21. Corn and hay with cottonseed meal, limestone flour and salt made up the diet that produced an average gain of 2.4 pounds per day. The calf sold at the auction for 12 1-2 cents per pound, bringing a gross of $120.50, or a profit of $28.17.

Youths receiving honorable mention included Billy Bob Sellers of Coolidge, Carmack Watkins of Emhouse, Lloyd Kent of Powell, Joe Perkins of Union High, Jack Burke of Corsicana; Wilmer White of Dawson, Bronnie McNabb of Purdon, Ramsey Fields of Frost, LaRue Douglas of Roane, Pedro Ferrer of Barry, and Curtis Stokes of Richland.

Several boys have shown interest in similar feeding projects for the junior livestock show to be staged in the spring and for the regular contests for the fair next fall, according to Assistant County Agent A. P. Bralley.

Noonday Dining And Spend-the-Day Party Enjoyed in Kerens

KERENS, Nov. 5.—(Spl.)—Mrs. E. H. Norton entertained 18 friends most delightfully last Thursday with a noonday dining and spend the afternoon party. The lovely home was beautifully festive for the occasion with newly opened chrysanthemums, autumn marigolds and cosmos, and red and brown leaves.

The buffet in the dining room was picturesque, covered with a blk yellow pumpkin, around which squash, gourds, okra, tomatoes, nuts, grapes ,apples, bananas and persimmons were grouped in artistic arrangements.

At the noon hour guests found places at the dining room table seating ten, and at a table laid for eight in the living room, both of which almost groaned from their burden of good things attractively placed.

SOUTH AMERICA SETS OUT ON WIDESPREAD CO-OPERATION PLAN

EXPECTED TO RESULT IN STRONG COMMON FRONT LINKING THE AMERICAS

(By The Associated Press.)

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Nov. 7.—(AP)—South America set to work today on a widespread program of inter-American co-operation which many sources believed would result in a strong common front linking the Americas defensively and economically.

With the possible exception of Brazil, the South American nations have been "marking time" on vital Pan-American problems of economics and defense pending the presidential election in the United States but they regarded President Roosevelt's re-election as a "go-ahead" signal.

Hesitation to make any commitments earlier was particularly noticeable in Argentina, a key nation in whatever co-operation scheme may be worked out to offset economic hardships resulting from war and the threat of a totalitarian spread to the New World.

This country is known to be facing a severe shortage of foreign exchange due to the war and is anxious to obtain majoro credits from the United States and find increased export markets.

Finance Minister Frederico Penedo announced yesterday that the Argentine cabinet had given provisional approval to his plan to restrict imports from the United States to vitally needed articles so as to check gold export. Such a step, he said, was intended to reactivate. Argentine economy and "balance" foreign trade but would be put into effect only if other means of solving the nation's foreign trade problem failed.

One generally well-informed source here said it was possible that Argentina, which is the leading South American nation in credit rating because she never has defaulted on a national obligation, might seek a loan of as much as $100,000,000 from the U. S.

Kerens PTA Met On Tuesday in Regular November Meeting

KERENS, Nov. 7.—(Spl.)—The November meeting of the Kerens Parent-Teacher Association was held Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the High school auditorium with a large number present.

Mrs. T. L. Whorton, president, occupied the chair and disposed of both old and new business. Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted and membership cards were handed to all who paid their dues.

Mrs. James Wright, treasurer, in giving her financial report, also stated that thet local organization had been awarded two points in the "pay your membership at the first meeting campaign" with 18 members having complied.

Attention was called to the state meeting of Parents-Teachers, now in convention at the Adolphus hotel in Dallas, and all patrons were urged to attend at least one session.

Mrs. Andrew McClung, as leader of the day, announced the following progrem:

ELECTION

us means that we are getting on pretty well.

"And we are very happy, both of us, to be back here for a little bit longer.

"You all know how very much we like farm life, but of all the cities we would rather live in Washington, D. C., than any place else."

The President said he wanted to tell the crowd "how glad to return to Washington."

Mrs. Roosevelt, Henry A. Wallace, Vice President-elect, and Mrs. Wallace rode with the President in his open car through throngs that lined the way to the White House.

Over 50,000 At Station.

Captain E. A. Sweeney of the District fire department estimated that 50,000 to 60,000 persons were gathered on the station plaza alone.

At the White House, the White House police force lined up, each man at attention. The staff of the executive mansion added its welcome.

After Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt went indoors, the gates of the White House grounds were opened for the first time in months and the people flowed through them. "We want Roosevelt," they chanted and roared.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt came out on the front portico and waved in response. Cries for a speech were unavailing.

Flags whipped in the crisp autumnal air. Bunting decked the great gray building. School children lined the curbs. Bands were marshalled. Police expected the biggest day since the visit of Britain's king and queen.

The decisiveness of that triumph was reflected in the hourly more complete tabulation of the nation's popular vote. With 119,168 out of the country's 127,245 voting units accounted for, the ballot totals stood:

Mr. Roosevelt—25,956,562.

Wendell L. Willkie—21,591,032.

The President had 39 states to his credit with a total of 468 electoral votes, while Willkie mustered 9 states and 63 electoral votes. The big possibility of a change in this lineup appeared to rest with Michigan, where late republican gains cut the democratic margin to a slender 3,700 with more than 60 districts yet to report.

Republican Gains Over 1936.

The Roosevelt victory, however, was not without encouraging aspects for his republican opposition. The same figures which clarioned his re-election, also proclaimed substantial republican gains over 1936 when Mr. Roosevelt won 523 electoral votes to the 8 which two lone states yielded to his rival, Alf M. Landon.

In 1932 the popular vote went: Mr. Roosevelt 27,476,673, Landon 16,679,583, but in 1940 Willkie not only slashed fifty per cent off the numerical size of the Roosevelt plurality but piled up a record-breaking mountain of republican ballots. Although the count was not yet complete, he already had surpassed the previous republican high of 21,392,190 which Herbert Hoover reached in 1928 in his great "prosperity landslide."

With the last tardy returns still dribbling in, Mr. Roosevelt had a multitude of affairs awaiting his attention. Problems of foreign policy, plans for greater assistance to Britain, and defense program details all promised to shove quickly into the background the election, its interests and controversies.

Keynote of National Unity.

On these major questions the chief executive was receiving an increasing number of assurances of co-operation and support from the ranks of his erstwhile political foes. To implement these assurances, a post-election keynote of national unity sounded in every section of the country.

Following upon Wendell L. Willkie's telegram of congratulation to Mr. Roosevelt yesterday, Alf M. Landon, republican 1936 Standard bearer, told the country by radio that its job now was to "grin and go back to work."

In Palo Alto, Calif., Former President Hoover noted that both Republican Candidate Willkie and Democratic Candidate Roosevelt had "pledged to the utmost National preparedness and to keep out of foreign wars."

"The transcendent duty now," Mr. Hoover said in a statement, "is the full co-operation of everybody in this vital purpose."

In New York, Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, a democratic campaigner to the last ditch for the Willkie cause, declared that "every American should line up solidly behind the President in the interest of the future welfare of our country."

Along with their promises of support and cooperation, however the republicans gave every evidence of functioning vigirously as opposition to the administration on all issues which they may regard as inimical to the country's best interests.

Almost complete returns showed that the strength which the republicans will command in the new congress, beginning in January, would be greater in the senate and somewhat less in the House than in the present session. With the outcome of one senate race still in doubt, the republicans thus far had registered a net gain of four seats for a total of 28 as against 66 held by democrats in that chamber.

In the House the democrats had a net gain of five seats, with only five contests still undecided. This gave them a total of 263 members, compared with 218 necessary for a majority. The Republicans had elected 162 members and progressives 3, independent democrats 1 and American labor 1.

Meanwhile, indications increased that complete official returns on 1940's presidential election, counting in some million ballots usually cast for minor party candidates, would be around 49,000,000, the greatest in history. The record meant that about 4,000,000 new voters had been added to the 1936 total.

Willkie Given Credit.

To Willkie, whose energetic and unprecedented campaign entailed almost 30,000 miles of traveling, politicians generally attributed much of the credit for getting out the whopping republican vote. His success in this respect buttressed his position as head of the party, with great influence over its policies of the next four years.

Exactly what part he would play and what he thinks those policies should be were subjects he was expected to discuss in a statement within a few days.

Mr. Roosevelt indicated at Hyde Park yesterday that renewed efforts to bring together Congress of Industrial Organizations and the American Federatio nof Labor might be undertaken, perhaps with his enhanced personal influence behind them. This hint of a new labor peace move came when reporters present at the Chief Executive's dedication of Hyde Park's new postoffice asked for a "story."

Mr. Roosevelt called their attention to signs carried by men in the crowd of onlookers. These said "When Lewis resigns labor will have peace" and "Not Lewis, but unity."

John L. Lewis, president of the CIO, is expected to offer his resignation at the organization's convention this month. When he came out for Willkie in the campaign, he announced he would step down if Mr. Roosevelt was re-elected.

Red River County Tax Vote Is Close

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The vote on the Red River county tax amendment to the state constitution continpued close today in the 11 a.m. tabulation by the Texas Election Bureau.

The vote at that time was 120,399 for the amendment to 119,666 against.

In the presidential race, the Roosevelt vote was 712,223 to 168,417 for Willkie.

Would End Electoral College.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Sen. Lodge (R-Mass) today termed the electoral college "a relic of the past" and said he would introduce before congress "a constitutional amendment to require presidential elections to be settled by the vote of the people."

Asserting the college "serves no useful purpose," he added that it makes "it possible for a candidate with the popular vote to be defeated."

"In this, as in every other elective contest, let the people rule," he said in a statement.

Close in Michigan.

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Michigan's 19 electoral votes remained in President Roosevelt's column today by a margin of 2,619 in incomplete and unofficial tabulations, with eighteen of the state's 3,632 precincts unreported.

The vote was: Roosevelt, 1,026,476; Willkie, 1,023,857.

Flynn Equals Farley.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(AP)—A political prognosticator, Edward J. Flynn is the equal of Former Democratic National Chairman, James A. Farley, who predicted that President Roosevelt would carry 46 states in the 1936 election.

In his pre-election forecast, Flynn gave the republicans a maximum of nine states—and that's what they won. However, he slightly underrated Wendell Willkie's electoral vote. He said it would be 58; it was 63.

Mexican Comment

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The leading Mexican newspaper Elcelsior said editorially today that re-election of President Roosevelt signifies a "real plebiscite to determine the course of the United States in the uncertain conditions prevailing in the world."

Minnesota Vote.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Final unofficial election returns in Minnesota gave president Roosevelt 628,739 votes, Wendell Willkie 588,057; Norman Thomas (Socialist) 5,946; Earl Browder (communist) 2,520; Aiken (industrial) 2,417.

U. S. Senator Henrik Shipstead, republican, was re-elected with 628,373 votes to 303,916 for Elmer Benson, farmer-labor, and 243,455 for John Reagan, democrat.

"Lach Lacks Little."

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Down here at Duke they are saying that "Lach lacks little."

What the folks mean is that Steve Lach has gained more than seven yards a try from scrimmage in 19 plays, averaged 41 yards with his punts, completed three out of six passes for 29 yards, received 16 tosses himself for gains amounting to 230 yards and on defense hasn't had a first down made against the end of the line he backs up.

Mattress Plant At Kerens Begins Operation Again

KERENS, Nov. 6.—(AP)—On October 18th the local mattress factory was reopened in pursuance of the Department of Agriculture's plan for aiding low-income farm families. Many families in this community will thereby receive new and comfortable mattresses, as 132 bales of cotton are now available for use. Mrs. Earl McClung is chairman of the local division of government aid.

Misses Era, Vera, and Beatrice Absher are in charge of production, at the plant, which at present is turning out six mattresses per day, with the number expected to be increased considerably in a short time. All work is under the direction of Mrs. Ola Powell Malcolm, extension field agent, in charge of home demonstration work in the southern area.

ARMY PAY.

His pay seems very small to the average American soldier. Yet alongside of military pay in other countries the little old thirty bucks a month of the American private look like wealth.

The British army man gets about $15 a month, the German $6, the Italian $1.50, the Hungarian $1.18, the Bulgarian 85 cents, the Frenchman 35 cents, the Yugoslavian 30 cents, the Greek 25 cents, the Rumanian 20 cents and the Turk 5 cents. Now what would an American soldier do with 5 cents a month? It would buy him less than one cigaret a day.

Still, when you consider relative ability of the various countries to pay their defenders, the scale may work out rather equitably. It would be interesting to figure it on that basis and see how the various rates agree with national wealth per capita. It might be found that Uncle Sam can afford his $30 a month as easily as the Turkish government can afford its 5 cents a month, on top of the cost of keeping a big army in the field.

PRACTICAL PAN-AMERICANISM.

We can get along best with the Latin-Americans, and keep them lined up on our side, by using their products and helping them to make a living. A pioneer step in this direction has been made by Jesse Jones, federal loan administrator. He is using some of the resources at his disposal to insure a supply of tin to American manufacturers. He does this by agreeing to buy enough tin concentrates from Bolivia to produce 18,000 tons of tin a year for American use.

This is a long step toward making our country independent of the Dutch Indies for tin, which source is in danger of being shut off. It naturally makes our country stronger with the Bolivians and helps them to resist Old World interference. The extension of such procedure, for obtaining raw materials not produced in this country, will do more than eloquent speeches to promote democracy and win co-operation in Central and South America.

FALSE HELPER.

Another reason why the United States should sympathize with the Central and South American nations in their economic difficulties, rather than criticize their shortcomings as democracies, is suggested in revelations now being made of the propagandist activities of Manfred Zapp.

Zapp headed the Trans-Ocean News Service, undercover spreader of Nazi propaganda in this hemisphere. He pretended he headed a private business enterprise. Government investigators found that he was the direct agent of the German Foreign Office. His work did not get far in this country, but he was able to feed large doses of poisoned news to newspaper readers farther south.

He did this by giving his doped copy free to papers too small to buy more reliable services. Sometimes he even paid them for printing his stuff. He was helpful in numerous ways. He bought typewriters and other equipment for them. He induced German advertisers to buy space of them. Yet always he worked against the local government in every possible way.

Until we are willing to be generous and helpful in honest ways and for constructive purposes, we can hardly wonder at the victims of such anti-democratic efforts.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1937, Edgar A. Guest)

SAVAGE.

He was a cruel savage; to school
he'd never been,
The altar in a house of God his eyes had never seen.
He'd never asked for mercy and no mercy had he shown,
But when he went to battle he let women folk alone.

His savag'ry was fearful and blood curdling was his cry,
His war whoop and his war dance were designed to terrify.
He was ignorant of culture and
he sometimes ate the dead,
But the thought of killing babies never came into his head.

To make himself more savage he stuck feathers in his hair,
He daubed paint upon his body
other painted foes to scare.
He shot many a flaming arrow at the white man's grim stockade.
He was cruel, he was cunning, but with men his wars were made.

NO MORE LEPROSY?

We are told now that leprosy, a terrible scourge known since the beginning of civilization, may be erased from the earth in 20 years. That will mean saving millions of people for useful and happy lives and removing a great fear from the world.

The cure is said to be a simple and well known remedy, the antitoxin or noxoid used now for diptheria. The discovery was made by Dr. Douglas B. Collier at a leper asylum in Siam. He is an American and a graduate of the University of Colorado Medical School.

This discovery will be of special interest in the Philippines, where there is a considerable leper colony.

Epochal medical discoveries have been coming with increasing frequency of late, lengthening and easing the life of man. We seem able to find cure for nearly all the diseases except those of human nature of which man's propensity for war is the worst.

PHILIPPINE PROBLEM.

Warships and planes are sent to the Philippines as war clouds threaten that region. Secretary Knox says the islands will be defend against any attack and the United States is "not indifferent toward any territory under the American flag."

Many Americans are wondering, however, just what we are going to do about that rich, tropical archipelago. Its people have demanded independence and have been assured of it in 1946, and are already virtually self-governing. But it grows more obvious every day that if Uncle Sam pulls out of the Philippines, Japan will move in. Intelligent Filipinos realize that. And it seems as if there should be some new arrangement soon, suiting the realities of the situation.

PREPAREDNESS

Americans who regard the present conscription and military training plans as temporary, to meet a passing emergency, may be wrong about it. Conscription, says Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, minister to Norway, "is not the next step forward in the march to the battlefield," but it is "the first step forward on the road to permanent preparedness. And permanent preparedness is the foundation of peace with dignity, security with self-respect, patriotism with a purpose."

It seems unlikely that we shall return to a mere "token" army within any period now foreseeable. It may be necessary to maintain an army of a million or so under arms, with several millions more trained and subject to call, for a long time—not for foreign service, but for security at home and throughout this hemisphere.

TEXAS AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION DOING GREAT WORK

TEXAS FOOD CROPS INCREASE IN QUALITY AND QUANTITY AS RESULT

By The Associated Press.

Texas food crops, always in flux, are in substantial measure the fruiting of the tireless work of research men at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station who seek better things for better living for Texans.

These patient searchers after greater fulfillment of the soil, pioneer with test tube, experimental plot and food vitamins that farmers and stockmen may obtain more abundant harvests, and at autumn instruct them how to salvage economically even the least of their crops and to prepare seed and soil for a richer one the next season.

No element in the vast field of sustenance, apparently, is outside the scope of their study, or fails to challenge their instinct for betterment and adaptation as a food resource. Random selections from voluminous data assembled by members of Director A. B. Connor's staff illustrate how to obtain a timely and useful addition to the home shelf from a grape crop, and how to prepare for progressively better crops of sweet potatoes, second in the agricultural industries of Texas.

H. M. Reed and U. A. Randolph, horticulturalists who for more than two years have been investigating development of grape juice blends, say this refreshing beverage is easily and inexpensively prepared because little or no sugar is required, and one bushel of grapes will yield two and one half to three gallons of juice.

An inexpensive thermometer should be used to prevent spoilage by bottling this juice at too low temperature and prevent damage to flavor by a higher temperature. Ordinary household utensils of aluminum or granitware may be used for crushing and heating, but zinc (galvanized iron) or iron pots should be avoided. Zinc dissolves in the juice and makes it poisonous, and iron will spoil the flavor.

The juice can be put into any kind of glass container which can be sealed. Tin cans should not be used except the special type made for grape juice The pasteurizer for sterilizing the juice after bottling have a false bottom of slatted wood or iron so the bottles will not touch the bottom of the vessel.

Grapes should be picked when fully ripe and all ldy berries removed before crushing. Seeds should not be broken in the crushing, because this gives the juice a bad taste. White grapes are crushed stems and all, but if red grapes are to be heated to extract the color stems should be removed to avoid an astringent flavor.

To extract the color, the red grapes after crushing are placed in a pan over a olw fire, and with constant stirring to prevent overheating at the bottom, the temperature is brought to 145 degrees. No water should be added, and the heating should not exceed ten minutes. After heating the grapes are poured into a cloth bag or fruit press to squeeze out the juice. Blending of several varieties of grapes make a better flavored juice.

Containers should be clean and hot when the juice is ready for bottling, and crown caps placed in boiling water just before using to kill mold. The juice should be heated to 175 degrees at bottling and containers left in the pasteurizer at 165 degrees temperature 30 minutes. Store the juice in a cool dark place because heat and light have damaging effects on color and flavor.

Housewives, the horticulturists explain, can use the juice in frozen desserts, and by adding pectin small lots of jelly can be made as needed.

The 1940 crop matured, sweet potato growers turn their thoughts to next year's cash crop and here the expert advice of the experiment station becomse potent. Seed selection, says R. E. Wright, in charge of the investigations laboratory at Gilmer, "is probably the most important factor in the production and handling of the crop." When practical, a seed plant should be planted from vine cuttings on clean land, and hill selection practiced. Hills having the largest number of uniform roots of desirable skin and flesh color should be selected and carefully examined for stem rot and other diseases before storing.

Growers producing pants from stock on hand should discard those having small roots or an excessive number of small lateral roots. Roots which have passed for skin color should be examined for fresh color by chipping or nicking on the shoulder of the potato near the end by which it was attached to the plant. Only potatoes having orange-colored, or salmon pink flesh should be used for bedding.

Wright concudes his suggestions upon means to grow better sweet potatoes with this observation: "Sweet potatoes should be handled like eggs or apples, and not be thrown together in heap rows. If the sun is not too hot, the potatoes should be allowed to dry somewhat before they are handled. Grading should be done in the field and the potatoes hauled to the storage house in crates. Bruised or cut potatoes do not keep well in storage, and such material should be fed to livestock as soon as possible."

Vegetable Laxative Has Important Points

Most people want a laxative to do three things: (1) act punctually, (2) act thoroughly, (3) act gently.

Here's one that usually fills all three requirements when the easy directions are followed. It's an all-vegetable product whose principal ingredient has medical recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative."

That's the ingredient which enables BLACK-DRAUGHT to help tone lazy bowel muscles. It is the main reason for the satisfying relief from constipation that generally follows next morning when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime. The millions of packages used are proof of its merit.

Ickes Comments About Press And Invites Replies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7—(AP)—Secretary Ickes, an early suporter of a third term for President Roosevelt, gave this statement to reporters today:

"Today, through the correspondents at this press conference I wish to address a friendly inquiry and also an invitation to the newspaper publishers of this nation.

"We have just come through a great presidential campaign with the results that you now know. During the campaign much was said of the function of a free press in a democracy. Now we find, according to editor and publisher, that eight years ago our citizens elected a president who was supported by only 40 per cent of our daily press. Four years ago we elected a president who was supported by only 36 per cent of the press. Last Tuesday, we elected a president who was supported by less than 23 per cent of our daily press.

"This reveals an unprecedented and progressively perilous situation requiring public consideration. Although we are fortunate in having free communication over the air, I am convinced that our democracy needs, more than ever before, a truly free press that represents no class or economic group and that will re-win the confidence of our citizens because it is worthy of re-winning that confidence.

"As the heat of political controversy dies and the wounds of strife heal and we seek national unity in this crowded hour of our history, there comes a great opportunity to our publishers to meet this challenge.

"I commend the situation to them for calm self-examination.

"I invite them, through their columns, to comment."

RUSSIANS OBSERVE 23RD ANNIVERSARY OF REVOLUTION

DEFENSE COMMISAR URGES ARMY TO DISPLAY A MAXIMUM VIGILANCE

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCOW, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Defense Commissar Semeon Timoshenko urged the red army to display "maximum vigilance in an exceptionally alarming international situation" as Moscow turned over its Red Square today to the army for a review marking the 23rd anniversary of the bolshevist revolution.

Marshal Timoshenko took advantage of the aniversary to show publicly for the first time how Soviet Russia has built up her armed forces under his six-month regime at a time when other large European nations have been at war.

The Moscow Soviet at a meeting last night issued a statement declaring Russia's policy to be continued neutrality and armed vigilance.

"True to her policy of peace and neutrality," the statement said, "the U. S. S. R. will not participate in war. We must remember the international situation is full of surprises. Therefore, as (Joseph) Stalin has said, we must keep the entire nation in a state of military preparedness."

President Michael Kalinin in a lengthy address at the meeting warned that "the present international situation does not allow us to remain impartial onlookers x x x"

"This situation," he said, "imposes responsible duties on every Soviet citizen. x x x Our first and uppermost duty is further to consolidate the economic and defensive might of the socialist fatherland."

Timoshenko, who succeeded Marshal Klementi Voroshiloff six months ago as defense commissar, called attention in an order of the day to the need for preparedness in "the face of the danger of military attack so that no 'accident' and no tricks of our foreign enemies could catch us unawares."

Mrs. Roosevelt Says Her Income Large; Outgo More

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 —(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, lecturer, broadcaster, author and columnist, cheerfully told her press conference today that while she had "made a great amount of money" she now had less principal than eight years ago.

The president's wife was asked whether, now that the election was over, she would discuss her income and outgo. She replied:

"There seems to be an impression in the minds of certain people that I have made a great amount of money and laid it up. I have made a great amount of money, but I have not one cent of principal nor have I put one cent in investment since 1932."

Mrs. Roosevelt then added with a laugh that in fact she had less principal than in 1932.

Much of the money that she had earned, she said has gone into charaties.

Laval Signs Accord

VICHY, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Informed sources said today that Vice-Premier Pierre Laval had signed a French-German economic accord in Paris last week, but that further progress in relations with the reich awaited the result of General Maxme Weygand's activties in Africa.

Weygand is in charge of all African military and political work on behalf of the Vichy government.

GERMANS RESUMED ATTACK ON LONDON THURSDAY NIGHT

WEDNESDAY NIGHT ASSAULT CONSTITUTED ONE OF THE LONGEST OF WAR

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Fast-flying German raiders lit the sky with flares tonight and then hit London with fire and explosive bombs to open their nightly attacks after one daylight stab at the capital.

Other attackers were reported over Liverpool, on the west coast, in an after-dark follow-up to forays by light and heavy axis bombers from the south coast to Scotland.

In the day's battles the air ministry announced six German planes had been shot down.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Sirens howled at noon today, giving London its first air raid alert of the day after the longest night alarm of the war.

The raiders dodged defenders in the clouds to scatter bombs on the London area and vapor trails high in the blue-patched sky coupled with the sound of diving and climbing planes told of a battle over the capital.

The alarm sounded a few minutes after the noise of a dog-fight was heard. A lone Dornier (German) bomber dropped a stick of bombs on a Southeast coast town a few hours earlier without causing any damage.

Light and heavy axis bombers scattered bombs over a wide area of Britain during the night, ranging from the South Coast to Scotland.

An early morning checkup showed that while damage was comparatively light it was spread over more sections of England than for some time.

One bomb struck a famous London church where a number of women and children had sought refug. Tere were some casualties but the number was not immediately known.

Big Fire Started.

One cluster of fire bombs which fell with a stick of seven high explosive bombs started a fire that sent flames leaping so high they silhouetted the majestic dome of St. Pauls Cathederal.

In mid-afternoon the air ministry announced that five German planes had been shot down in today's fighting over Britain.

Long range British warplanes bomber the Berlin suburbs and a railway junction northwest of the German capital during the night, the airministry reported.

Attacks also were made, a communique declared, "on synthetic oil plants at Leuna and Hamburg, factories near Dusseldorf, the inland port of Duisburg and railway yards and junctions at Halle, retsch, on the Elbe, and near Cologne."

Other squadrons were said to have bombed long-range German gun emplacements at Cap Gris Nez on the French coast.

The Berlin suburb attacked was identified at Spandau, where the air ministry said the raiders had attacked industrial plants. The Royal Air Force operations were described at "extensive."

In daylight attacks yesterday, British bombers were said to have pounded oil refineries at Salzbergen, starting great fires.

Reserves Full Liberty

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—R. A. Butler, undersecretary for foreign affairs, told the house of commons today that Britain must "reserve full liberty of action in regard to Rome" since Italian fliers had bombed London.

When Italy entered the war Mussolini's government declared Rome an open (or undefended) city not used as for military purposes, in order to preserve its antiquities from destruction by bombs.

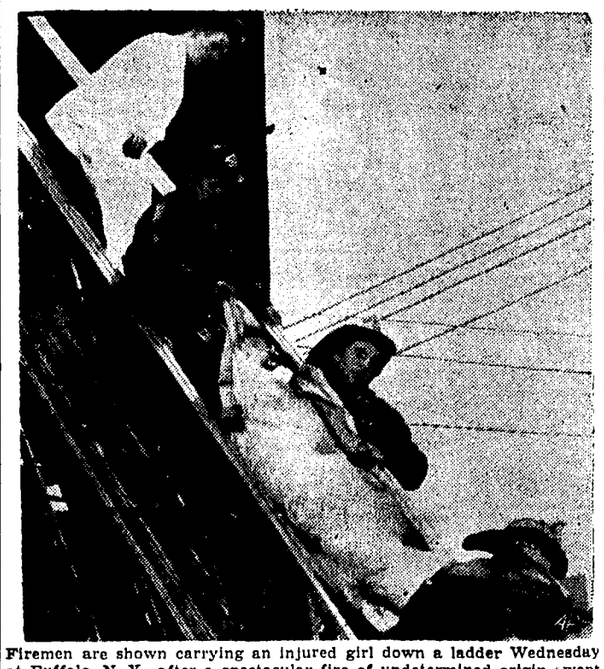

It has not been bombed, but on Monday, when British fliers bombed Naples, the capital had an early morning air raid alarm.

De Valera Answers Churchill.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Prime Minister Eamon De Valera told the Dail (parliament) tonight that there can be no question of handing over Irish ports to Britain so long as Ireland remains neutral.

(Prime Minister Churchill told Commons Tuesday that inability to use Irish ports as bases placed 'a grievous burden" on the British navy in its task of patrolling the seaways.)

GIRL RESCUED IN TOY FACTORY FIRE

Firemen are shown carrying an injured girl down a ladder Wednesday at Buffalo, N. Y., after a spectacular fire of undetermined origin swept through a downtown toy factory. Two girls were expected to die of burns.

INTERNATIONAL

Italian troops had made "small advances" along the Greek west coast, and that their columns were bombed by Greek planes.

Slight Greek Retreat.

Greece's high command acknowledged that Greek forces "retreated slightly" yesterday at the extreme lower (western) end of the 100-mile battlefront, in the Epirus sector along the Ionian Sea.

Neutral Yugoslavia took a sharply stronger stand in the Balkan conflict with a government it would answer with "armed force" any repetition of attacks on Yugoslav territory—such as the bombing of Bitolj by unidentified foreign planes Tuesday.

In the battle of Britain, Nazi warplanes gave London's subway-sleeping millions their longest night attack of the war, and in Southampton rescue squads still dug this morning for the dead and living entombed in the ruins of many buildings.

Students and teachers were buried under the rubble of a Southampton school smashed by three German bombs, and clerks and typists were trapped under a demolished row of office buildings.

Watchers Bombed.

Dispatches from Southampton said that as British RAF fighter planes roared up to the attack, the German formations dived low and tripped their bomb racks directly above crowds of thousands standing in the streets to watch the dogfighters overhead.

Other Nazi raiders scattered bombs over a wide area from the south coast of England to Scotland.

From the sound of some of the raiders' motors, British observers said they were sure the Italians were taking an increasingly large part in the assaults upon Britain.

Although some persons were killed and injured in London and a number of homes and apartment houses were destroyed, the British government said damage and casualties were not in general large.

Earlier this morning German long range guns on the French coast opened up and shelled the Dover area for more than two hours.

Soviet Russia, celebrating the 23rd anniversary of the Bolshevist revolution, reaffirmed a policy of armed neutrality. Russia, which in the past 14 months has gained territory from six neighbors, was reported unofficially in Turkey to have withdrawn some troops from the Turkish border as a goodwill gesture.

Blows Against Shipping

Hitler's high command reported heavy aerial blows against the British merchant marine, including:

1. An attack on a British convoy 300 miles west of Ireland, in which three 6,000-ton freighters were so severely damaged that "their loss must be reckoned with."

2. An 8,000-ton merchantman hit amidships and sunk off the Orkney Islands; another freighter bombed off Britain's east coast, and still another in Kinloch Castle harbor, on Scotland's west coast.

3. Damaging attacks on the shipping ports of Southampton and Liverpool, as well as Birmingham, Conventry, Great Driffield and Leeming.

Long-range RAF bombers retaliated by attacking the Berlin suburb of Spandau, the London air ministry reported, while other RAF bombs were dropped on "a concentration of shipping" at Cuxhaven, Germany, and on a convoy of ships off Den Helder, Holland.

YMCA Being Taxed Care For Activities

With the YMCA winter program getting under way, the facilities of the organization has been increasingly taxed during the past few weeks with meetings of numerous clubs and organizations.

Participating in the association's activities to a great extent lately are the business men's volley ball classes, the Friendship Club, the Camera Club, and the Gra-Y and Hi-P clubs of the various schools in addition to many others.

anything he pleases with his official family, especially in view of the mighty task ahead of him."

Only three of the President's original 1933 cabinet remain—Ickes and Secretaries Hull and Perkins.

There seemed little likelihood that Hull would leave his post at the state department. In circumstances similar to Hull's, with regard to holding jobs of especially current importance, are Secretaries Stimson and Knox.

Secretary Morgenthau gave reporters today a possible indication he expected to remain at the treasury when he spoke of plans he had for asking the next congress for another increase in the national debt limit.

Secretary of Commerce Jones, it was said, probably would not have gone to the trouble of waiting for congress to enact special legislation for him to hold that job as well as the federal loan administrator's, had he regarded the secretaryship as a post of brief tenure.

There was conjecture Secretary Perkins, whose regime at the labor department coincided with the AFL-CIO split, and there was nothing definite about the future for Agriculture Secretary Wickard, Postmaster General Walker and Attorney General Jackson.

Six charges of gaming with dice and one of blocking a street crossing brought offenders into the Corsicana Corporation Court Thursday morning.

GREECE

artillery, 100 miles northeast of the Kalamas front, conceivably might slow down or even halt the Italian coastal drive through a rearguard threat.

ATHENS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Greece's defenders sought today to consodidate newly-won positions in the mountains dominating Koritza at the northern end of the Albanian front while 100 miles to the Southwest their left flank grudgingly yielded ground before the Italian invaders.

The high command acknowledged that Greek forces had "retreated slightly" yesterday at the extreme lower end of the Epirus sector bordering the Ioanian Sea after heavy aerial and artillery activity along the entire front.

The exact extent of the withdrawal was not disclosed.

Reports from the northern front indicated that Koritza, the base 10 miles inside Albania from which the Italians launched a thrust toward Salonika 10 days ago, was completely at the mercy of Greek forces in command of the surrounding mountains.

Italian supply lines and airdromes were said to be covered by Greek Artillry hidden high in the mountains.

Reports that Greek forces actually had entered Koritza were discounted by military experts, who doubted whether the Greeks would attempt to push down into the plains and seize the city.

Such a move would serve no good purpose, these experts asserted, and would put the Greeks at the mercy of the Italian mechanized forces. By clinging to the mountains the Greeks are in a much more favorable position to beat off an italian attack without suffering costly losses themselves.

Unofficial reports said the Greeks had captured at least 1,000 Italians in their push toward Koritza and had destroyed at least a dozen tanks—mostly light machines designed for mountain warfare and similar to those used by the Italians in the Spanish civil war.

Both British and Greek planes were said to be backing up the ground operations by pounding Italian troop concentrations and supply lines heavily.

The Greeks said the Italian warplanes bombed the cities of Volos, Patras, Larissa and the Island of Zante, but declared casualties and damage were slight.

Germans Advised to Leave.

BELGRADE, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Trustworthy advices from Greece today said that all Germans in Greece had been advised by German diplomatic officials to leave the country at once.

This move was interpreted in neutral diplomatic quarters as indicating possibly that Germany foresees no early fulfillment of the expressed hope for a quick settlement of the conflict.

Germans Leaving Turkey.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—A Reuters (British News Agency) dispatch from Ankara, Turkey, said today that a number of German Nationals were leaving Turkey in connection with the arrest at Istanbul of several Turks on suspicion of Espionage.

ANNUAL ADDRESS IN WORTHAM DELIVERED BY REP. JOHNSON

WORTHAM, Nov. 7.—(Spl.)—The Hon. Luther A. Johnson of Corsicana and Washington, D. C., made his annual Wortham address here Tuesday evening, Nov. 5th, as special guest of the Wortham Civic club. Other guests were representative groups from Kirven, Streetman, Teehuacana, Mexia and Corsicana.

The club meeting, with over one hundred present, was held in the Methodist church, the banquet arrangements being made by the Woman's Auxiliary.

The club president, Elmo Longbotham, presided. The program chairman, Dr. Fred W. Horn, presented from Corsicana the quartet of the Chamber of Commerce, with Miss Carolyn Megarity accompanist, whose program delightfully entertained the appreciative audience.

The speaker of the evening in briefly reviewing former visits to Wortham spoke of his first visit, "When I came in by early teens to organize a Christian Endeavor, then in my twenties, when I became politically minded and came on my return from Washington to give account of my stewardship."

With comparison of conditions and times of other years to the critical times, the perilous times, he said, 'History is not made now in years, but in days." He referred to the tramp of dictators on the march trying to down and control the world—not governed by God, but their own law; their goal and ambition. Years ago all men were created equal, and the pursuit of right and happiness was founded upon these principles—and for the more than one hundred years they have been recognized.

"In this time you must be prepared, adequately prepared to meet the only language dictators know, fear and force." The United States has embarked on one of the most stupendous programs of any country. The South still has that patriotism that has made America great. When the spirit of democracy dies, there is no democracy. ut of this great crisis is going to come Americans more sincere, more patriotic. This United States now is making progress far faster than one can realize for defense.

"America wants no war, what America wants is peace," concluded Mr. Johnson.

Corsicana Student At Texas Working In University Library

AUSTIN, Oct. 7.—(Spl.)—Gradon F. Williard, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Willard of Corsicana, is one of more than seventy students who are helping to pay for their own education at the University of Texas here by working part-time in the University library, the foremost library of the South, which annually spends some $20,000 for such student help.

Willard, who works at the open shelf in the libary, was a 1938 graduate of Corsicana High school. He was a member of the band, the glee club, debate club, photography club, the Hi-Y, and the basketball team. Here at the University he is a junior majoring in chemical engineering; he s a member of the Longhorn Band.

The average student library employee works about thirty hours a week and earns from $30 to $40 a month, which covers from two-thirds to half of his monthly expenses. Before the end of the current school year more than a hundred students will work approximately 65,000 hours in the library.

Woman Is Convicted

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Anna Wolkoff, charged with Tyler Kent, discharged employe of the United States embassy, with violating Britain's official secrets act in a spy plot, was convicted and sentenced today to 10 years imprisonment.

Kent, previously convicted, was sentenced to seven years.

Miss Wolkoff, 37, is the daughter of a former Russian naval attache to London. Kent was convicted last week but his sentence was postponed until after the trial of Miss Wolkoff.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HORS D'OEUVRES.

Veronica Dengel

Any easy and attractive way to add extra something when you are having guests for dinner is to serve Hors d'ouevres before you go to the dining room. These are a perfect accompaniment to the cocktail which has become an accepted service before dinner; and such interesting platters can be arranged that they are a delight to the eye—an important factor in stimulating the appetite.

Shall I tell you how we frequently arrange ours? We use a large round silver tray, and in the center is placed a huge red apple. The apple is merely used to hold small stuffed olives which have been wrapped in bacon and speared with a toothpick to hold the bacon in place. Then they are placed under a broiler to brown the bacon. When ready to serve, one end of the toothpick is pushed into the apple, and the other end extends enough to permit the guest to take it out. About a dozen of these can be placed on one apple. Surrounding the apple we arrange short stalks of celery which have been stuffed with cream cheese anad sprinkled with paprika. These should not be more than two and one-half inches long. Radishes are cut into roses, and the green leaves are left on when they are crisp, because this adds to the color scheme of the tray. Scraped carrots are cut into thin, long slices—about twice the thickness of a match.

Little rounds of toasted bread are spread with anchovy paste and garnished with grated egg yolk. Devilled ham, mixed with a little mayonnaise to thin it out, is spread on toast or those prepared canape crackers which have little indentations to hold the filling. Grated egg white garnishes these (nothing wasted, you see). For those who like watercress to munch on, wrap two sprays of it with a thin slice of pimiento. Arrange this variety, or any part of it, as beautifully as you can—keeping an eye for color and design. If you are having a particularly big party, you can add tiny pickled onions, and there are many variations of spreads and pastes for unlimited choice. But I warn you—don't give them too many; it may dull their appetite for your delicious dinner. Have just enough!

Occasionally one hears the French phrase "Hors d'oeuvres"—which is an accepted term for this little before-meal service—badly mispronounced. Just in case you are in doubt, remember that the "s" is not pronounced in French except when followed by a vowel nor do you ever say "de" when you see "d'o—". Forget that the apostrophe is there and pronounce as one word. Hence the pronounciation of "Hors d'oeuvres" would be: "hor durvr"; the "o" in "hor" is the same as the "o" in orb, and the "u" sounds quite like our "u" in "urn," if it were dragged out just a bit. The French sound "eu" is always difficult for the American to pronounce. Perhaps the easiest way to explain is that you say "u," but the mouth is shaped as though you were going to say "ee". Does this help?

that there will be uninterrupted help for England.

The British press is jubilant, on the basis that "America will quicken her stride again and without any of the delays that might have come from the sending of a new man to the White House."

The impression prevails in some quarters that England wants us to come into the war. I believe there was a time early in the conflict when a good many Britons did hope for, and work for, that. However, that sentiment would appear to have about disappeared. As I judge the position it was well summed up the other day by a widely known Englishman with whom I was chatting.

"Thank goodness," he exclaimed, "you people have made up your minds to stay out of the war. The worst thing that could happen to England now would be for you to get into the conflict. We immediately should be cut off from the American supplies, since you would need them for yourselves. That would be a disaster for us."

HEAVY COLLECTION OF CORSICANA TAXES IN MONTH OCTOBER

City tax collections during October, 1940, more than trebled those of the corresponding month in 1939, J. M. Pugh, city assessor and collector, stated Thursday morning. The November collections, however, have showed a decided decline as compared with last November.

Pugh reported approximately $27,000 in current and delinquent city taxes were collected this October as compared with $8,200 during the corresponding month in 1939.

The city assessor and collector said that the only reason he could advance for the decided jump was property owners were taking advantage of the three per cent discount for payment of county and state taxes, and while they were attending to that payment, also paid their city taxes.

No discount for early payment is in vogue in the city.

TAX COLLECTIONS IN NAVARRO COUNTY SHOWS AN INCREASE

Tax collections for Navarro county approximated $250,000 during October, an increase of more than $10,000 for the corresponding month of 1939. This information was given by T. A. Farmer, assessor and collector of taxes. Payment of current taxes during October received a three per cent discount under regulations passed by the state and by the commissioners court.

The collections for October, state and county current and delinquent, totalled $248,265.33, as compared with $237,476.92, for October, 1939, an increase of $10,788.41.

These figures do not include levee, beer, occupation or inheritance taxes.

Farmer reported the collections thus far in November also have been good. A two per cent discount is being allowed in November.

The assessor and collector stated that many more small taxpayers had availed themselves of the discount this year than last year. The big corporations, railroads, and large property owners took advantage of the saving both years.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The heaviest trade in wheat in months today produced a sharp price advance ranging from 3 5-8 to 4 cents which carried December contracts as high as 87 3-4, within 1-8 of the six-months peak established on October 24. Corn rose 3 cents.

Buying, which spread to other grain pits was attributed by floor brokers to a revival of inflation talks stimulated by strength of securities and a statement of the secretary of the treasury referring to possibility of an increase in the federal debt limit and to the close watch which will be maintained over purices as the defense program progresses.

Heavy profit taking reduced the wheat gains slightly but closing prices were 3-35-8 higher than yesterday, December 87 1-8 1-4, May 80 3-8 1-2. Corn closed 2-2 1-2 higher, December 62-62 1-8, May 63 1-8 1-4; oats 5-8 to 3-4 higher.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Cotton futures, after a hesitant opening, rallied around $1.00 a bale today, establishing new highs for the season. The Dec. delivery sold at 9.86 or the best price since early last May.

A broad general demand through commission houses followed Secretary Morgenthau's request for an increase of 15 to 20 billion dollars in the debt limit.

In addition to speculative buying, persistent trade price fixing and Bombay support in the later months aided the advance. Hedge selling increased on the rise and brought about partial reaction in later trading.

STOCK MARKET IN RUSH RECOVERY IN THURSDAY TRADING

LEADERS CLIMBED AS MUCH AS SEVEN POINTS ON FLOOD OF ORDERS

By VICTOR EUBANK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The stock market recovered with a rush today from its post-election sell-off, leaders climbing as much as seven points on a flood of orders.

Prices were close to their best at the close and transactions, totalling about 2,000,000 shares, constituted the largest single day's volume since last May.

An early morning rise described by some analysts as a "technical adjustment" developed into a regular "bull" session after Secretary Morgenthau asked that the statutory limitation on the national debt be lifed.

Some Wall Street circles sighted inflationary aspects and further large-scale spending in the treasury chief's remarks, and share quotations promptly benefited.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Crucible established new high marks for the year.

Others which shoved well above recent levels included Chrysler, General Motors, American Telephone, Western Union, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Smelting, American Can, Westinghouse, General Electric, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Texas Corp., and Santa Fe.

Bonds gained with stocks. Commodities were buoyant, wheat at Chicago ending 3 to 3 5-8 cents a bushel up and corn 2 to 2 1-2 cents higher. Cotton neared the close 75 to 95 cents a bale ahead.

Eureka Methodist Missioary Society In Session Tuesday

The Woman's Missionary Society met at Eureka Methodist Church Tuesday, Nov. 5. with eight members and one visitor present.

With Mrs. Garland at the piano the group sang "Pass Me Not" and then repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The roll was called by the secretary with each one present answering with a favorite verse of scripture.

As there were no one present who had specially prepared a devotional, Mrs. Dave Garrett read an interesting article written by Dr. John W. Holland.

Mrs. Capehart sent a letter to the society asking each member to piece a friendship quilt block for Rev. George Evans, an expastor of Eureka Church, who is now pastor at Eureka Oklahoma. These blocks were distributed and will be returned to Mrs. Capehart as soon as possible.

The Presbyterian Ladies Auxiliary had a conference meeting at their church Wednesday, Oct. 30.

Mrs. Garrett attended this meeting and reported to her society. She said each one who was absent missed a special blessing for herself.

We then studied and discussed the first chapter of Galatians and closed the meeting with the benediction.

The next meeting will be with our pastor's wife, Mrs. Smith if she returns to Eureka, which we are all looking forward to.—Reporter.

New Production High

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Industrial production reached a new peak in October, the federal reserve board reported today, crediting the actual prospective activity due to defense orders.

The board estimated the October production level at 127 per cent of the 1935-1939 average, or one point above the previous December high and six points better than the summer rate.

BAGS FIRST BEAR OF SEASON

Mrs. Edith Padgett, 24-year-old mountain woman, doesn't know much about city life—she saw her first street car last spring—but she's perfectly at home in the wilds of East Tennessee. Here she is with the 400-pound bear she bagged in the Cherokee Forest near Tellico Plains, Tenn., on the first day of the state-sponsored hunt. To her went the honor of getting the first bear.

British Official Of Navy Attacks Admiralty Work

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Robert Tatton Bower, world war veteran and member of parliament told the house of commons today there is "definite disquiet about the board of admiralty as a whole" in its conduct of Britain's naval affairs.

He asserted that Sir Dudley Pound, first sea lord, was "not the man he was."

Long noted for his outspoken comment, Bower participated in a short debate on the sinking of the aircraft Glorious with loss of 1,204 men in the Norwegian campaign.

He charged that he was shunted to an "inferior" appointment in the navy after writing to First Lord of the Admiralty A. C. Alexander that "grave concern was felt among many responsible members of the naval staff at the conduct of operations in Norway and also in connection with loss of the Glorious."

He declared that the war was not being fought to set up Alexander "as a little pinchbeck Himmler with a tinpot staff."

Sub-Contracts Awarded.

ORANGE, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Subcontracts in connection with the naval building program here were let today to the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific company of Houston and to Spence and Howe of Port Arthur.

The Houston concern was given the contract for dredging 3,000,000 cubic yards of material from the bed of the Sabine river channel near the shipyard site where 12 destroyers will be constructed.

The Port Arthur company was awarded a contract for driving foundation pilings for the first two permanent shipyard structures. The sub-contracts were let by the Bechtel-McCone-Parsons Corporation.

"TONY" MAYFIELD DIED IN GREENVILLE FROM HEART ATTACK

BEGAN LONG RAILROAD CAREER IN CORSICANA MORE THAN FORTY YEARS AGO

GREENVILLE, Texas, Nov. 5.—J. T. (Tony) Mayfield, 62, joint agent for the Cotton Belt and Southern Railroads and a well-known civic leader, died suddenly shortly before noon Monday when he suffered a heart attack. He was widely known among Lions Club members and for his DeMolay work. He was a state councilor of DeMolay.

Funeral services were conducted here at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the Neer & Lybrand Chapel, with the Rev. W. J. H. Petter, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. Burial was in a Dallas cemetery.

Mr. Mayfield was standing on the freight platform at the joint depot when he was stricken. He was taken immediately to a hospital where he was pronounced dead. Members of his family said he had been in ill health for two years.

Born near Horn Lake, Miss., he moved to Texas in 1897 to enter the service of the Cotton Belt in Corsicana, where he remained until 1910, when he was transferred to Athens as ticket agent for this railroad, and in 1914 he moved to Hillsboro where he served in the same capacity until 1935 when he assumed his duties here. He had been with the Cotton Belt Railroad longer than any other agent in Texas.

He had been active in all civic undertakings in Greenville, including membership in the chamber of commerce, the Lions Club, Woodmen of the World and the Masonic order. He was a Knight Templar and alos belonged to the Karem Temple Shrine at Waco.

During his service as head of the Hillsboro DeMolays they received international recognition

He is survived by his wife and five children, J. A. Mayfield, Dallas; T. P. Mayfield, Waco; Angus C. Mayfield, W. A. Mayfield and Miss Hazel Mayfield, Greenville; a brother, A. L. Mayfield, Mobile, Ala., and three sisters, Mrs. Robert Cobb, Mrs. Henry Hotter and Mrs. Mal Cooney, Memphis, Tenn., and six grandchildren.

While residing in Corsicana, Mr. Mayfield married Miss Ruth Angus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Angus, pioneer residents of this city.

Mrs. W. K. Steele and Miss Heien Robbins were among those who attended funeral rites for Mr. Mayfield from Corsicana.

Jack Love Given Promotion in Rank Schreiner Institute

KERRVILLE, Nov. 6.—(Spl.)—In general orders issued at Schreiner Institute in Kerrville, recently, Commandant W. O. Green made known the promotions earned by various members of the cadet corps. This list of promotions was the most important thus far issued since the opening of school in September.

Friends of Jack Love, who is this year attending Schreiner Institute and who is the son of L. W. Love of Corsicana, will be pleased to learn that his name was among those included in the promotions. Love, who formerly held the rank of corporal, is now listed as sergeant.

Advancement in rank in the cadet corps at Schreiner is viewed by the students as a valuable indication of their progress and success. For that reason young Love is to be congratulated on his work.

VOTERS IN NAVARRO COUNTY GAVE CORRY WRITE-IN MAJORITY

UNUSUALLY LARGE VOTE POLLED HERE TUESDAY IN GENERAL ELECTION

Navarro County Democracy kept pace with the national landslide at Tuesday's general election as approximately 8,400 ballots were cast, according to complete unofficial returns tabulated by the Sun-Light Publishing company Wednesday morning.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt polled 7665 while Wendell L. Willkie, Republican standard bearer, mustered only 721 votes. Norman Thomas, Socialist president aspirant, received two votes, both in Ward 3, Corsicana, while Earl Browder, Communist candidate, received five, four in Ward 3, and one in White's Chapel.

Navarro countains, however, voiced stern displeasure against J. E. McDonald, Democratic nominee as commissioner of agriculture, following his announcement after the primaries he would support the Republican nominees, when 39 of the 48 boxes went for W. N. Corry in a write-in campaign, runner-up candidate in the primaries last summer. Navarro county previously had always rolled up a big vote for McDonald in the Democratic primaries in the past five election years. Corry received 5269 votes while McDonald garnered only 2720.

Three of the four proposed amendments to the Constitution of Texas were approved by Navarro county voters.

Governor Topped Ticket.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel topped the state and national ticket when he received 8145 votes in Navarro county. Hopkins, republican nominee, polled only 200 votes.

The proposed amendment whereby Red River county could issue bonds to retire a general fund deficit under certain conditions was defeated in this county with 1511 for and 1567 against.

Appointment of notaries by the secretary of state was popular with 2090 ballots for the measure and 1206 against it.

Removal appointment limitations for city employees under civil service barely carried with 1514 favoring and 1415 opposing the amendment.

The proposed amendment for

Local Merchants Plan Observance Of Armistice Day

Members of the Corsicana Retail Merchants Association will be closed next Monday, November 11, in observance of Armistice day according to an official announcement this week.

They will be joined by the two Corsicana banks, public schools and other enterprises.

Members of the Johnson-Wiggins Post No. 22, American Legion, have been making plans for several weeks for a special celebration of the occasion.

direct appeals to the Supreme Court from lower court decisions based on constitutionality or validity rulings of trial courts proved the most popular in this county. There were 2042 for and 1097 against the measure.

Winkler Report First.

Winkler precinct was the first to report at 6:56 P. M. Tuesday. There had been 24 boxes reported at 7:55 P. M., and 42 boxes had been received at 9:20 P. M.

Corry carried the following thirty-nine precincts in the write-in campaign for commissioner of agriculture: Roane, Ward 2, Phillips Chapel, Navarro Mills, Rushing, Westbrook, Eureka, Chatfield, Cade, Rural Shade, Pursley, Retreat, Mildred, Currie, Raleigh, Tupelo, Petty's Chapel, Richland, Frost, Angus, Kerens, Ward 3, Emmett, Rice, Cryer Creek, Navarro, Birdston, Dawson, Dresden, Emhouse, Powell, Ward 4, Spring Hill, Black Hills, Rodney, Winkler, Ward 1, Purdon and Zion's Rest.

McDonald carried Corbet, Eldorado, White's Chapel, Oak Valley, Bazette, Drane, Montfort, Barry and Blooming Grove.

Scattered other write ins were Campbell 6, Otto 1, Boyd 1, Martin 5, G. W. Harvard 1, W. N. Golden 1.

In Ward Two Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson received one vote for governor and the presidential candidate of the Prohibition party, Roger Babson, also received one vote in this ward.

Express Appreciation.

John C. Calhoun, mayor of Corsicana and chairman of the Navarro county finance committee for the National Democratic Committee, expressed his appreciation Wednesday morning for the fine response of this county in contributions and voting. Slightly in excess of $1050 was received in the financial campaign for the national committee.

Mose Blumrosen, Corsicana, chairman of the Navarro County Republican executive committee,

$3000 IS CAMPAIGN GOAL OF SALVATION ARMY LOCAL WORK

W. P. BROWN, CHAIRMAN ADVISORY BOARD, HEADS DRIVE FOR FUNDS

With a goal of $3,000 in view, the annual Salvation Army campaign for operating funds got underway Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and will continue through Saturday.

W. P. Brown, chairman of the local Salvation Army advisory board, is heading the campaign with Major R. E. Clevett of Dallas directing the drive. Assisting are Major H. G. James of the local corps and Miss Helen Endom, campaign secretary.

Taking part in the campaign are representatives from the three Corsicana luncheon clubs, Rotary, Lions and Civitans, in addition to numerous other interested citizens. Names of the workers and their respective organizations follows:

Civitan Club—F. A. Pierce, Clifford Brown, R. A. Purifoy, Clark Butler, F. V. Williams, F. C. Paul, and Dr. J. Wilson David.

Rotary Club—W. P. Brown, Joe Butler, John C. Calhoun, J. M. Dyer, Isadore Goldberg, Tom Bailey, John Corley, Pat. H. Ramsey, C. S. Dickens, W. T. McElwee, R. R. Brown, Fred Prince, and H. M. Montgomery.

Lions Club—J. A. Pittman, Jay Silverberg, R. W. Knight, W. P. McCammon, A. G. Elliott, Boyce Martin, W. M. Elliott.

Others participating include Rev. John B. Ingle, C. A. Vaughn, Robert B. Key, Jr., S. J. Jackson, Ed. M. Polk, Sr., Carl Patterson, C. E. McWilliams, Rev. W. R. Hall, Ed Rittersbacher, W. T. McKee, Paul Miller, Everett Bowers, and Joe Schlotter.

issued the following statement Wednesday morning:

"I want to thank the Corsicana Daily Sun for its fairness to both sides during the campaign and now that the campaign is over, I want everyone to get behind President Roosevelt, forget the campaign and work and help make this country safe for democracy."

One of the unusual things reported was the case of an aged negro in Ward 1, at noon Tuesday who had a decided opinion and desire.

After receiving his ballot, he remarked his eyesight was bad and requested Chairman W. F. Morris to mark his ballot for him.

"I wants to keep our President right where he is," the darkie stated. The ballot was marked accordingly. And then he continued: "I wants to vote for Mr. Corry against Mr. McDonald. Mr. McDonald ain't done just right."

After the ballot had been marked, he again asked whether his ballot was fixed to keep Roosevelt in and against McDonald. Assured that it was by the election official and a bystander, the aged negro Democrat turned from the polling place, put his hat on as he reached the door and trudged slowly away toward his home in East Corsicana.

Roosevelt and O'Daniel carried every box in the county. The President swept Ward 1, 188 to 70, in which a large per cent of the nominal negro republican strength is found.

The huge vote in Navarro county and Texas at Tuesday's election will give a larger representation in the Democratic conventions and meetings in 1942 than would have resulted had the customary small vote been recorded.

The returns from the election will be officially canvassed and declared by the commissioners court Tuesday, Nov. 12, at the next regular meeting.

Kerens Cotton Receipts.

KERENS, Nov. 5.—(Spl.)—At last reports, taken Thursday noon, 7,126 bales of 1940 cotton had been weighed at the three yards in Kerens. The figures are some 3,000 bales short of the number weighed on the same date last year.

might begin his career in the legislative field in the absence of his predecessor. They thought that "Cactus Jack" Garner might not come out of retirement at his Uvalde, Tex., home to participate in the ceremony of handing over the gavel to the new vice president.

Of thirteen senators, seven will be Republican and six Democratic.

Republicans who will take the oath for the first time include:

Raymond E. Willis, Angola publisher who defeated Senator Sherman Minton, Indiana Democrat and majority whip of the Senate, in a close race.

Unseated Slattery.

C. Waylond Brooks, Illinois lawyer who played an important part in drafting the foreign affairs plank of the Republican convention platform and who unseated Senator James M. Slattery, a Democrat.

Hugh A. Butler, Nebraska Republican, who won over Governor Robert Leroy Cochran, a primary victor over Senator Edward R. Burke, Democrat.

Harold Hitz Burton, Republican "reform" mayor of Cleveland, who proved his vote-getting ability by capturing the seat voluntarily vacated by Senator "Vic" Donahey, Democrat, despite and Ohio sweep for Roosevelt.

Governor George D. Aiken of Vermont, who won the seat vacated by the death of Senator Ernest Gibson, Republican, and filled temporarily by Gibson's son.

Rep. Ralph O. Brewster, who won the Maine contest in September to fill the vacancy created by the voluntary retirement of Senator Frederick Hale.

Langer, former North Dakota governor, lost an attempt two years ago to unseat Senator Gerald P. Nye.

Republican Upsets.

Willis, Brooks, Butler and Burton furnished four Republican upsets by winning Democratic seats. Senator Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota, accounted for the fifth chance by shifting his party designation from Farmer-Labor to Republican and winning re-election.

Democrats who will take the oath for the first time include:

James Miller Tunnell, Delaware lawyer and banker, who rode along with the Roosevelt majority to capture the only seat taken away from the Republicans, that of Senator John G. Townsend, Jr.

Ernest W. McFarland, Arizona superior court judge, who defeated veteran Senator Henry Fountain Ashurst in the Democratic primary and won easily over his Republican opponent.

Representative Abe Murdock, of Utah, victor over Senator William H. King in the Democratic primary and over his Republican opponent in Tuesday's voting.

Representative Mon C. Wallgren, who won the seat to be vacated by Senator Lewis B. Schellenbach, Washington Democrat appointed to a federal district judgeship.

Harley M. Kilgore, criminal court judge, who will succeed Senator Rush D. Holt, previously defeated in the West Virginia Democratic primary.

The sixth new Democratic member will be appointed later by Senator Matthew M. Neely when Neely takes over his newly-won post as governor of West Virginia and relinquishes his Senate seat.

ed two years ago by republicans.

They included Alfred F. Beiter of New York, until recently Secretary Ickes' contact man at the capitol; Herman P. Kopplemann and William J. Fitzgerald, of Connecticut, Harry L. Haines of Pennsylvania, Robert L. Ramsay of West Virginia, Stephen M. Young, William R. Thom and Lawrence E. Imhoff of Ohio; Elmer H. Wene of New Jersey and George D. O'Brien of Michigan.

Another former member returning was Miss Jeannette Rankin, republican, of Montana, first woman ever elected to congress.

Harry Sauthoff, Wisconsin progressive, also comes back again, having turned the tables on Charles Hawks, Jr., republican.

Besides all these there will be 63 new faces in the chamber. Two of them, however, have been pretty close to federal law-making. Gordon Canfield, New Jersey republican, and Herbert Bonner, North Carolina democrat, are former congressional secretaries.

Final Ohio Returns.

COLUMBUS, Ohio., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Final unofficial tabulation of Ohio election returns today gave President Roosevelt 1,728,909 and Wendell Willkie 1,585,973.

GOVERNORS

continued, a merchantman of 8,000 tons was hit amidships and sunk. Another freighter was bombed off Britain's east coast, another in the harbor of Kinloch Castle, on Scotland's west coast. German planes continued to lay mines in British harbors, the communique declared.

The big German guns on the French coast were reported to have joined in the fight to deplete Britain's fleet of food carriers, opening fire on the port of Dover and ships southeast of Dover, hitting one ship so badly that it was unable to continue its journey.

Informed sources said hits were scored on an 8,000-ton vessel in a third convoy, causing a boiler explosion, and also on a 6,000-ton vessel, which was struck twice amidship.

A fourth convoy was attacked in the North Sea and one of its four ships was reported crippled by a bomb hit. Hits were claimed on a 6,000 tonner west of Ireland and a freighter of undetermined size off Duncansby.

Day and night raids yesterday over England were concentrated in Liverpool, Birkenhead, Birmingham, Coventry and London, these sources added.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LUFKIN CHILD HELD HERE TODAY

Funeral services for Donald Joseph Crawford, aged 6 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crawford of Lufkin, who died at Lufkin Tuesday afternoon, were held at Oakwood cemetery here Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock where interment was made. The rites were conducted by Rev. D. B. Dautenhan, Lufkin Lutheran minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and their mother, Mrs. Ada Overstreet Kelly are former Corsicana residents having lived here and in the Zion Rest community for many years. He is survived by his parents, one brother, James Lawrence, grandmothers, Mrs. Ada Kelly of Lufkin and Mrs. Fox of Houston and other relatives.

Sutherland-McCammon Funeral Home directed the arrangements.

ALEXANDER

James Patterson Alexander as a teacher.

"For 20 years," he said, "Judge Alexander has sought to teach his law students to be worthy of their heritage from the law." He cited the "practice court" the new chief justice developed—in which students carry a law case through the entire procedure of state courts—as unique among the nation's law schools.

The supreme court delegation and a group of local lawyers were guests of the university at a noon luncheon.

Mother Is Seeking Missing Daughter

Pearline Armstrong, aged 15 years, has been missing from her home in Corsicana since Sunday, Oct. 27.

Mrs. Ruby M. Armstrong, mother of the missing girl, is very anxious to get in touch with her daughter.

According to Mrs. Armstrong, the girl has light brown hair, height, four feet, four and one-half inches and weighs 114 pounds. When last seen, according to her mother she was wearing a dark blue silk dress, patent leather shoes and carried a patent leather purse.

Mrs. Armstrong resides on South Twelfth street in Corsicana and gets her mail here at general delivery.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the girl is requested to notify the mother or the sheriff's department.

Recruit Hard to Fit.

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Nov. 7.—(AP)—After five weeks in the army here, Private Raymond E. Hay, 20, of Rock Island, Ill., doesn't have a uniform.

Reason—Hay stands six-feet-four and weights 335 pounds. There were no hand-me-downs big enough to fit him and a hard-pressed tailor is just getting around to his job.
